Washim dog squads' remarkable performance in detecting crimes

■ District Correspondent

WASHIM, Jan 21

SP BACHCHAN Singh instructed the officers of the Police Department to accelerate crime investigation with the help of dog squad as the performance of the Washim district dog squads is remarkable.

The Police Dogsquad was established in the year 2006 in the premises of Washim district Police Force. There are 1 officer and 7 enforces posted in dog squad. Washim has total 3 dogs. Out of them, 2 dogs are for crime detection and the other is for narcotic detection. There are 2 dog handlers assigned to each dog. The dog handlers take care of the dogs and train the dogs them to detect crimes.

The training of crime detection dog 'Lucy' was done at the Washim district Police Force establishment while another dog 'Bella' completed the training in 2022. Both the crime detection dogs are performing their duties well in the police force.

The dog 'Roy' of the Dog squad establishment works for narcotics detection and has joined the Washim Police Force after completing his training in 2022. With crime detection dogs 'Lucy' and 'Bella' at service, the police investigation have picked up good speed. Therefore, these dogs have been useful in the investigation of various types of crimes such as murder, robbery, thefts and vandalism.

The dog 'Lucy' is very agile and in the year 2022, she played an important role in the investigation of a total 66 crimes including the case of murder of Maroti Bhikaji

Pun, a priest of Durgamata temple at Kekatumra. After smelling the mobile phone and steel glass at the place of the incident, she identified the accused who was standing in the crowd and helped to solve the crime. Earlier, she played a valuable role in the investigation of crimes committed under various police stations of Washim district.

Police officer and Cops Satish Lad, Pundlik Rakhonde, Sheshrao Shejulkar, Subhash Ingole.

Tushar Gadekar, Venkatesh Rawlewad, Ganesh Dhore and Mahendra Jadhao are performing in the dog team squad under the guidance of SP Bachchan Singh.
